From my desk to yours:  A Note to our Graduating Seniors

“Though no one can go back and make a brand new start, anyone can start from now and make a brand new ending.” ~Carl Bard

When we graduate high school they tell us we have our whole lives in front of us. Whether you are off to college, exploring the world, or entering the work force, we begin a whole new chapter. Independence.

A starting point.

Most of us never learn to appreciate where we are at this very moment because we’re so focused on what happened (or didn’t happen) in a past that no longer exists and worried about a future that hasn’t happened yet. Be in the moment.

Empathy.

We all have a story to tell, listen and open your ears—this story isn’t about you, it’s bigger!

In 4-H, you have learned to give back and be good citizens. Service learning is a valuable tool and one that each of you graduates understands!

You are valuable.

Graduates as you leave the nest and head into the world, remember what has been instilled in you. You will go far, I have no doubt!

◊ Make wise decisions
◊ Continue to help others
◊ Pick a career that makes you happy
◊ If you start something—FINISH
◊ Find a hobby that you enjoy— all work and no play makes for a dull life
◊ Learn as much as you can
◊ Believe in yourself!
2017 State Fair Book

2017 State Fair Book has been released on igrow. http://igrow.org/up/resources/01-4013-2017.pdf Extension offices will be printing one copy per family later this month. If you want a hard copy stop in and pick one up. The fair book is your guide to exhibiting all projects at achievement days and state fair.

All Horse and Livestock Affidavits Due June 1

Swine weigh in will be optional again like in the past few years. After you have your swine projects in your possession, come up to the office to get 4-H tags and DNA envelopes. You may process them at home and bring the office back the DNA envelopes. Each envelope needs to contain 50 hairs from the pig’s tail. DNA envelopes are $6 each. Any market animal who will be shown at the State Fair needs to have DNA collected.

Showing a new horse this year? Those forms are due June 1. You can put that info into 4honline directly and upload pictures of your horse. Please activate any horse that is already in the program that you have used before, prior to June 1. The Horse show contestant packet can be found here http://igrow.org/up/resources/01-4019-2017.pdf

Green NUES Tag and animal ID Info:

Tagging requirements:

- Market Beef need to have a green NUES tag which is given to them at weigh in.
- Commercial Breeding heifers must have a Bangs tag or Green NUES tag. This number must be on the affidavit.
- Registered Breeding Heifers must have a tattoo or freeze brand that correlates to her registration paper. That must be identified on the affidavit. (All breeding heifer tattoos will be checked at Achievement Days).
- Dairy Cattle must have a bangs tag, a Registration number, a NUES tag or an individual ear tattoo. The number chosen as her official form of ID must be on the affidavit.
- Dairy Goats should have a Scrapie tag, but if she does not, make sure an individual ear tattoo is on the affidavit.
- Market Lambs, Market Goats & Breeding Goats need to be tagged with a scrapie tag, that number is then put on their affidavit.
- Rabbits must have an individual tattoo in the left ear, tattoo must be written on the affidavit.
- All Market Swine should be Green NUES tagged unless they have a NUES Premise tag with a USDA seal on it.
- Poultry must have a leg band with color and number entered on the affidavit as soon as the information is available.
4-H Babysitting Clinic—May 30

On May 30th from 1-4PM at the Jerauld Co. Ag Building, there will be a 4-H Babysitting Clinic conducted by Audra Scheel, 4-H Youth Program Advisor, Marla Feistner—Jerauld Co. Health Nurse, and Betsy Krohmer and Leslie Marvin-Vinderslev—Jerauld Co. EMTs. This clinic is open to all youth 4-H and non; geared towards ages 8-14. Youth will learn about healthy nutrition, ages and stages of development, CPR and first aid to name a few. Cost will be $6 per child, with each receiving a babysitting bag containing tools for a successful babysitting experience. This bag can be exhibited at achievement days in the child development project area.
To sign up please complete the form attached to the newsletter email or contact your Extension Office.

4-H Camp Poinsett—June 12-14

20 Campers have signed up to attend 4-H Camp. We will be sending out information to you all very soon regarding transportation and things to pack for camp. Camp chaperones this year are Liza Kolousek, Tiffany Hoffman and Audra Scheel. This year’s theme is “Boot Camp”; youth will be able to swim, kayak, meet new friends, engage in different 4-H programs, and have a ton of fun. Watch your email for specific info:)

Natural Resources Opportunities For Youth

Youth interested in natural resources, rangeland and soils, there are several opportunities for you to gain knowledge in these specific areas. The South Dakota State University Department of Natural Resource Management will host the 2017 Natural Resource Camp at the Oak Lake Field Station in Astoria, SD, on July 10-14. Students have the opportunity to gain exposure to the world of natural resources through hands-on experiences in natural resource ecology and management. High school students entering grades 9-12 who have a strong desire to learn more about the natural world or who have an interest in pursuing a career related to natural resources are encouraged to attend. A wide range of unique activities will be offered at the camp. Camp attendees will have opportunities to assist with capture and sampling of birds, fish, aquatic invertebrates and mammals. Students also have the opportunity to learn about search and rescue tracking, stream ecology, plant diversity and much more. Please register by May 26th. Contact Leslie Vincent by email or 605.688.5602.

SDSU Extension will host the 2017 South Dakota Professionals & Youth Range Camp June 7-9, 2017 at the Lamphere Campground and Meade County School east of Sturgis, SD. The Professionals Range Camp will educate agricultural professionals, including but not limited to agricultural lenders, appraisers, assessors, realtors, educators, and government agencies. Participants will learn how to determine the economic potential of rangeland, as well as production and conservation practices to improve and sustain this resource. Cost of registration is $150. The Youth Range Camp is for youth ages 14-18 with an interest in understanding rangeland ecosystems and suitability for livestock and wildlife. Cost of registration is $85.

SDSU Extension will host South Dakota Rangeland & Soils Days June 20-21, 2017. This event provides an opportunity to learn about the natural resources of rangeland and soils. Learning activities for a variety of ages (8+) and expertise will be available. For more information on either event, or to request a registration form, please contact Dave Ollila, SDSU Extension Sheep Field Specialist. Office: 605.394.1722 or david.ollila@sdstate.edu

Health and Wellness Summit

SDSU Extension, in collaboration with the SDSU Wellness Center, will host a two-day Wellness Summit for South Dakota teens, June 14-15, 2017 on the SDSU campus. The Health & Wellness Summit: SD Teen Ambassador Program is designed to provide health and wellness education specific to the 7 dimensions of wellness to South Dakota teens from communities within the state. The educational resources provided are meant to enrich 50 teenagers from across South Dakota with wellness based knowledge while empowering them to serve as a wellness ambassador within their respective communities. Teen participants will be staying overnight in the SDSU dorms with adult supervision. Registration is limited and closes May 31st! Cost is $75 per youth. For more info contact Nikki Prosch, Health & Physical Activity Field Specialist, nikki.prosch@sdstate.edu Phone: 605-882-5140

Register here: http://igrow.org/events/health-wellness-summit-teen-ambassador-program/

Camp Bob Marshall TEEN Camp

Registration for the 2017 Teen Camp is available at http://igrow.org/events/4-h-teen-camp-bob-marshall-registration/

This is for 4-H and non 4-H members age 13-18, and also includes the registration for camp counselors (age 16-18). Counselors are still asked to send in a counselor application, available at http://igrow.org/up/resources/01-4018-2017.pdf.

HOSTA for Youth Farm Workers

SDSU Extension will be conducting a Hazardous Occupations Safety Training for Agriculture course May 31 - June 1, 2017 in Mitchell at the Davison Co. 4-H grounds. Youth planning to work on a farm or ranch this summer are encouraged to attend.

"If youth are 14 or 15 and working on a farm or ranch that is not their families they are required by law to attend a training," said John Keimig, SDSU Extension 4-H Associate. "Because agriculture work can be dangerous, we encourage all youth who plan to engage in agriculture work to attend the training."

The trainings will be held from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on the first day and 9 a.m. until 1 p.m. the second day. For more info go to http://igrow.org/news/hosta-for-youth-farm-ranch-workers/ or contact Audra Scheel.

Youth Pork Quality Assurance

All 4-H swine project members must be Youth Pork Quality Assurance (PQA Plus) certified in order to show hogs at State Fair. Training for Youth PQA Plus is available online at: http://www.pork.org/youth-pqa-plus/

Delivered in the form of an engaging, interactive online module, the online option allows participants to learn, test, and become certified in Youth PQA Plus.

May 30 @ Wess. Springs Ag Building, Audra Scheel will host a class to become certified.

Deadline to become certified is JUNE 1, 2017.
